

Pompey Hollow Senior Housing

Issue 6
June 1, 2023

From the Director

Thank you all for your cooperation during our transition to a new waste removal company. Casella unexpectedly removed the old dumpsters. I really appreciate everyone's willingness to help out and not overload the bins. Both the trash and recyclables will be emptied every other week on Thursdays and Fridays.

Beginning June 19th, I will be working from home most Wednesdays. I will be in the office every Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday.

New office hours starting Monday June 5th:

Monday, Tuesday & Thursdays 9-12pm

Bulletin Board Notices

Thanks to Kathleen, we have many monthly activities and special trips going on as well as senior center activities. To ensure that all the events are posted, the first board in the lobby will be dedicated to events. The second smaller board will be used to post information from the office like meeting agendas and any notices. Please make sure to check both boards. The laundry room board will be used for office information as well.

Lease Signing

Leases are now available for all tenants to sign. Please make an effort to stop in the office by Thursday, June 15th to sign your lease. Thank you!

Air Conditioner

The air conditioner is now on and the heat is off for the summer. Please keep all common area windows closed.

Gardens

All the garden beds and boxes are full and look great! Just a reminder, please keep any garden tools, fencing, or any other items off the ground. This is especially important when Adam mows. Thank you!

An Introduction:

Hi folks. My name is Laura Netro-Price and I am the new Administrative Assistant. Some of you may already know me as your fellow tenant, Diane Price's daughter-in-law; or from the Mansfield Senior Center, where I volunteer. I have been providing Occupational Therapy for 28 years as a Licensed Certified Occupational Therapy Assistant in skilled nursing facilities throughout Connecticut. I am learning new skills and transitioning into this new role. I look forward to meeting all of you. I also enjoy photography as a hobby and thought I'd share one of my favorite photos.
